

2nd Annual Community-Engaged Research Symposium 2019

Monday, June 17, 2019

10:30 a.m. - 8 p.m.

Margherio Family Conference Center
Wayne State University, School of Medicine
Mazurek Medical Education Commons
320 E. Canfield St. Detroit, MI 48201

Phoenix Matthews, Ph.D.

University of Illinois-
Chicago

Scout, Ph.D.

National LGBT Cancer
Network

Charles Kamen, Ph.D.

University of Rochester
Medical Center

Derek Griffith, Ph.D.

Vanderbilt University

Areas of expertise: LGBT communities & cancer;
Engaging African American men in health research

Implementing Strategies for Inclusive Research

This meeting is supported, in part, by Wayne State University's Office of the Assistant Vice President of Translational Science and Clinical Research Innovation, Karmanos Cancer Institute's Office of Cancer Health Equity and Community Engagement (OCHECE), and the Patient-Centered Outcomes Research Institute (PCORI).

Also featuring:

Vicki Johnson-Lawrence, Ph.D., Michigan State University. Expertise: Community trauma

Katrina Ellis, Ph.D., University of Michigan. Expertise: Achieving academic success as a community-engaged researcher

Vicki T. Sapp, Ph.D., Geisinger Commonwealth School of Medicine. Expertise: Cultural competency in research

The event is sponsored by

Community Partners

FREE EVENT
Community members, academics, stakeholders & researchers are invited to attend LIMITED SPACE REGISTER NOW!

Register now at
<https://www.karmanos.org/CEnRSymposium>

Questions? Call or email Lezina Topciu
313-576-8259 | topciul@karmanos.org
87 E. Canfield, MM03CB, Detroit MI 48201
www.KarmanosCancerHealthEquity.org